

Are We Lost Again?: My Adventures in Britain

What happens when a writer goes travelling? When they return, people ask What did you do? and the writer says, Read my book and find out. Read this book to follow Jillian and Yasamin as they travel through England, Scotland, and Northern Ireland, getting excited about public transportation and sitting in parks. They pretend theyre in a Harry Potter book, they eat some things theyve never eaten before, they take the most unusual naps -- and they might even learn something along the way.
